SERVICE USERS GUIDE

Introduction

The Care Homes Regulations 2001, Regulation 5, requires each Care Home to compile a written guide to the Care Home which is referred to in the Regulations as “The Service Users Guide”.

The aim of this Services Users Guide is to enable you or you representative to:

- Make such decisions as may be required about the suitability of the Care Home to meet your present and future needs prior to moving into the Home.
- Make valued judgements as to whether the Care Home is continuing to provide the level of services that was specified as part of your Terms and Conditions of Residency.
- Ensure that your views are taken into consideration and that you have a real say in the development of services available to you in the Home.
- Provide you with information regarding the views of external regulatory bodies.

The Service User Guide is designed to provide you with important information about the running of the Home and your rights as a resident. If you would like any assistance with understanding of the Service Users Guide then please ask a member of our senior staff who will be pleased to help you.

OTHER SERVICES

22. ARRANGEMENTS FOR REVIEWING YOUR PLAN OF CARE

Abbey Lea operates a care planning and review system. On admission each resident is assessed and a plan of care formulated. This plan will cover all areas of a resident's life and will not focus purely on problems and physical matters but aim to enhance the resident's quality of life, this is then reviewed on a monthly basis. Any persons involved in the care of a resident are invited, at least annually to discuss, review and revise a care plan.

23. ARRANGEMENTS FOR ATTENDING RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Abbey Lea takes all reasonable steps to ensure that each resident wishes are known and understood in relation to the practice of their chosen religion. Where requested, we will observe and ensure confidentiality in respect of religious belief or alternatively we will take such steps as may be necessary to enable residents to attend religious services or access religious leaders, ministers or priests in private.

24. ARRANGEMENTS FOR SOCIAL ACTIVITIES, HOBBIES AND LEISURE INTERESTS

Abbey Lea is able to provide a variety of ways that residents can engage in the enjoyment of social activities, hobbies and leisure interests. Residents are consulted individually in relation to their interests and wishes regarding social activities as part of the Service User Planning process. The range of activities available are set out below:

Aromatherapy massage, physiotherapy, exercises and games with Motivation & Co, Thai Chi and daily in-house activities with care staff. (See activities book)

25. ARRANGEMENTS FOR PETS

Relatives may bring pets in to the home for a visit provided they are well behaved.

26. ARRANGEMENTS FOR RESIDENT CONSULTATION ABOUT THE HOME

Abbey Lea is committed to ensuring that residents are fully consulted about matters which are significant in the running of the Home or about matters which might affect their well being or quality of life. Management and staff are available to listen to the views of residents.

27. ARRANGEMENTS FOR MAINTAINING CONTACT WITH RELATIVES, FRIENDS AND REPRESENTATIVES

Abbey Lea actively encourages residents to maintain all forms of social contact that they enjoyed before moving into Abbey Lea care Home. We will assist residents to maintain contact if requested.

Abbey Lea is looked upon as a resident's home and hence, subject to the resident's wishes, visitors are, within reason, generally welcome at any time. It would however be preferred not to have visitors at meal times unless clients are in their own room or a visitor wishes to join the client for a meal.

All visitors are requested to enter their details in the 'Visitors Book' and to sign out on departure. Visitors should be made aware that this is to comply with Care Home Regulation 17 & Schedule 4(17), Health & Safety legislation and Fire Regulations. Residents can usually receive visitors in their own room or in the lounge.

Visitors wishing to take residents off the premises should speak to the senior member of staff on duty first to ensure that any medication can be provided and that the trip out is within the capacity of the resident. This needs noting in the Visitors Book on departure and return.

Relatives and friends are encouraged to attend social events such as resident's Christmas Party, Summer Fair, entertainment evenings and outings.

28. RESIDENT'S PROPERTY

The Home will not accept any liability whatsoever for loss of or damage to any money or other valuable property kept (or said to be kept) by the resident in or about the Home unless such money or property shall have been:

- ◆ Identified to the Home in writing with a current written valuation.
- ◆ Deposited within the Home's safe for safekeeping.

PROVIDED THAT in the case of money, liability will not be accepted unless the money is deposited with the Home for safekeeping, and in no event whatsoever for sums exceeding £500.

In the case of all other property the Home's liability in respect of any item shall not exceed £500. For items above £500 the individual resident is solely responsible for a separate insurance policy to cover that risk.

29. GIFTS AND SIGNING LEGAL DOCUMENTS

The Home's employees or staff are not permitted to directly accept any gifts, and/or presents from residents or to sign as a witness any legal document which pertains to one of the residents in the Home.

30. ARRANGEMENTS FOR DEALING WITH COMPLAINTS

Abbey Lea welcomes any Comments, Concerns or Complaints about the services delivered or how to improve the running of the Home. Complaints or Concerns about the service provided within our Home will be treated seriously.

If a resident or relative requires help to make a complaint then they should be afforded advice about potential advocates.

TO RESIDENTS AND THEIR FAMILIES OR REPRESENTATIVES CARE STANDARDS ACT 2000

Under the above regulations we are required to inform you in writing how a complaint about the home may be made. (See complaints policy appendix C)

You or any person acting on your behalf may report any complaint to the Manager, the Registered Providers, the Care Quality Commission and/or the Ombudsman.
